THEORIES OF WAR AND PEACE - Rutgers University

Just war theory is an area of political philosophy which addresses questions of morality and justice related to war and armed conflict. The module will focus on the three primary components of just war theory which are jus ad bellum (just before war), jus in bello (justice during war), and jus post bellum (justice in transitions from war to peace). The module will also evaluate two objections to the very idea of just war theory: pacifism and realism.
